FOREIGN REFEREEING

International refereeing opportunities

We warmly welcome referees from abroad who hold an IJF-A/B license or at least a national B-license to participate in our event. Complimentary hotel accommodation will be provided for one night to all international referees joining us.

Referee Registration Deadline: Please submit your entries by Friday, April 29th, via email to anders.bengtsson@judo.se

Mandatory referee meeting: There will be a compulsory meeting for all referees, scheduled to take place one hour before the commencement of the competition.

Dress code for referees: it is required for all referees to dress formally, wearing a suit jacket, white shirt, and tie for the duration of the event.

ALTERNATIVE ACCOMMODATION

We offer you alternative accommodation approx. 10 minutes by car from the arena. You live together "dojo-style" with other clubs in a small city called Lomma.

Bring your air mattress, pillow, and your favorite teddy bear.

If you don't have a car, there are buses to and from Lund.

You have Lidle just around the corner. The dojo has a small kitchen, gym, toilets and showers.

You must be 18 years old if you are going to live alone, otherwise a leader must live with you or your club. Note that no children or young people are allowed to stay alone without an adult leader. Age checked upon arrival.

The price is SEK 225 per person and you book your place through Smoothcomp. Limited places.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATION

Because it is the Eurovision Song Contest, accommodation is limited. We have reserved beds at our official hotel Elite Hotel. To get accommodation at Elite, you need to book there immediately by phone call. Visit hotels: <https://lugijudoevents.se/accommodations/>

Questions will be answered at: info@lugijudoevents.se
